The Youth Symphony of Southern Oregon organization provides exceptional performance experiences and training under the leadership of professional conductors and musicians and fosters a lifelong appreciation of classical music and the arts. Participation in the YSSO develops music technique, performance and listening skills, and creative workforce skills such as teamwork, empathy, discipline, and personal responsibility. The learning environment and performances engage hearts, hands, minds and people through music, and augment the region's vibrant cultural arts environment.

The YSSO is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to providing young musicians from throughout the region with opportunities to expand their knowledge of classical music by learning and performing masterworks, concerti, new and commissioned music, arrangements, film and opera scores, and chamber music.
