Funding has been awarded to date by the Carpenter Foundation, Carrico Family Foundation, Oregon Arts Commission, a state agency funded by the State of Oregon and the National Endowment for the Arts, the Roger G. Hewitt Fund for Youth Symphony of Southern Oregon of The Oregon Community Foundation, and the James M. Collier Fund for YSSO of The OCF. Programs and operations are being underwritten in part through a bequest from Robert Kuntz along with support from the Friends of the Youth Symphony of Southern Oregon.

The Youth Symphony of Southern Oregon, a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization, provides performance opportunities and training to young musicians under the leadership of a professional conductor and professional musicians, and fosters lifelong appreciation of music and the arts. The YSSO organization is supported by annual gifts from individuals and family funds, foundation/agency grants, fund raising events, ticket sales, concert series partners, and tuition.
